Convenient

Great little fruit pots for lunches or picnics, my child enjoyed this very much. Only downside is not having a spoon or something enclosed.

The kids loved this product and a great way to get fruit into them.

fruit did not look appetising but taste ok

Quick easy healthier snack, would be great for lunchboxes and picnics. Nice amount of juice to fruit. Just a shame a small wooden spoon wasn't provided!

Juicy Tasty Pretty packaging Lots of fruit

The taste, texture of the fruit was good. Not too soft not too crunchy. The aroma/smell of the fruit put me off but it actually tasted fine. Like that it was totally recyclable

Fruit is hard and disappointing except for the pineapple. Loved the packaging tin and the foil lid

Expensive for a small pot of fruit

Afraid we don't like this type of product. I would buy free fruit over this. Tasted fake too which was a surprise. Not for us.

I was disappointed with the packaging, looks too similar to the tuna! It was a good idea but didn't live up to expectations. Looks dull and artificial, fruit very sweet and artificial tasting. Good for lunch boxes, very sweet and very small pieces of fruit, would be cheaper to cut up your own fruit.

I didn't like the texture, seemed quite poor quality for a well known brand.

Mushy fruit and strange mix of fruits. Child did not like at all

The packaging looks like it should be for tinned fish. Fruit tasted bland to me, and I didn't find it pleasant to eat.
